

THOMAS P. STAFFORD SCHOLARSHIP

DESCRIPTION:

The Thomas P. Stafford Scholarship is offered to graduating seniors from Weatherford and surrounding area schools, as well as students enrolled full-time at Southwestern Oklahoma State University.

This scholarship will be awarded each semester for four years based on a yearly evaluation of each scholarship recipient. Each student must pass the evaluation to receive the scholarship each year. First year recipients will receive $750 per semester and the amount will increase by $150 each year thereafter. By the fourth year, a student in good standing will receive $1,200 per semester.

Scholarship recipients, also known as Stafford Scholars, will be required to work part-time year around at the Stafford Air and Space Museum. Stafford Scholars will be classified as student workers through Southwestern Oklahoma State University and receive a monthly paycheck through SWOSU. Stafford Scholars will have the opportunity to work up to 20 hours each week ($10.25/hour) while school is in session and up to 40 hours a week when school is out of session. Each Stafford Scholar will be required to work a minimum of 15-20 hours each week to stay in good standing for the scholarship. Stafford Scholars who are graduating high school seniors will be selected each May and begin work at the museum the summer after graduation.

GUIDELINES:

- Students will be chosen from a 30-mile radius of the Weatherford area
- The awarded scholarship can only be applied towards books, fees, and tuition costs
  - This scholarship cannot be used towards room and board
- Applicants must include:
  - Essay on why you feel you need financial assistance
